FACES 'N PLACES

* SHELTON'S SPANISH CLASSES had a great time eating at La Fiesta restaurant recently. The waiter, who had been instructed to speak Spanish, helped the students communicate in their very limited Spanish. He taught them new words, such as sour cream (crema) and fork (tenedor), as well as helped them use the vocabulary they have already acquired during the past six weeks. The whole group laughed a lot while trying to make themselves understood, and a wonderful TQM experience was enjoyed by all.

* GLADYS HILL AND JACKIE WILLIAMS recently attended the Alabama Educational Technology conference in Birmingham. The conference was held at the Birmingham Civic Center. WILLIAMS also attended the leadership Seminar that was held in East Lansing, Michigan. Williams was a workshop presenter.

* DON RAINER was recently appointed director of financial aid and federal programs. As part of the new assignment, Rainer will oversee all grant programs in addition to his current duties as director of financial aid. FRANCES DODD, director of institutional development, who had been overseeing federal and state grant programs will now concentrate her efforts on development in order for the college to obtain additional funding from state, private, and federal sources.

* As part of her professional development plan, SHARON DECK is studying Alabama literature. Recently, she heard Albert Murray, novelist and jazz historian, speak in Selma as part of the Alabama Voices series. Also, she attended the fall meeting of the Alabama Council of Teachers of English where Dennis Covington spoke. His work, SALVATION ON SAND MOUNTAIN, is a finalist for the National Book Award.

* KATHERINE ALEXANDER recently attended the National Council for Preservation Education conference that was held in Eugene Oregon.

* During the official opening of the new Claude Harris building at the Veterans Administration Hospital recently, MILADY MURPHY and JOHNNIE BARRETT were featured as part of the 1945 USO theme. Johnnie played the piano for Milady, who was a featured vocalist. Over 200 people attended the event.

Footnote: Everyone enjoyed the Shelton Jazz Ensemble, under the direction of ALAN BLACKSHEAR, as they teamed up with MILADY MURPHY and JOHNNIE BARRETT to entertain faculty, staff, and students as part of the Monday Concert Series.

* BILL ALDRIDGE was recently appointed to represent the faculty on the Academic Services Division on the Information Technology committee (ITC).

* BRYANT MELTON has been named acting administrator for the C.A. Fredd Campus. LOUISE LEWIS is the new acting assistant administrator. CHESTER FREDD remains dean of occupational services for the college.

* THE SHELTON STATE ASSOCIATION OF STUDENT NURSES RECENTLY INDUCTED OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR. Humphrey Lee, dean of students, presided over the ceremony. Kay Peiffer is the new SSANS president. Other officers are: Cara Peacock, vice president; Leslie Cartlidge, secretary; Carolyn Morrison, financial secretary; Angela Peoples, treasurer; Jan Boothe, chaplain; Suzan Wright, historian; Melanie Coker, Palimentarian; Natasha Festa, reporter.

* Shelton new purchasing agent, JOYCE KELLEY, joined Shelton State after working as a certified public accountant with Jamison, Money, Farmer and Company, P.C. for 12 years. Her husband is David Kelley, and they have two sons, Sam and Ben.

* BRENDA RYAN recently held a "career readiness" program for practical nursing students at the college.

* JACKIE WILLIAMS, GLADYS HILL, BRENDA RYAN, LINDA GROTE, AND GLENDA WILLIAMS recently participated in the National Issues Forum that was held in Tuscaloosa.

* SHELTON'S BACH TO ROCK, a college musical ensemble, under the direction of Glinda Blackshear, recently performed at several local schools. The talented students presented a music appreciation program of live music ranging from Bach to the 20th Century to students at Arcadia Elementary and Stillman Heights Elementary.

IT'S AN HONOR

COLLEGE NAMES MOST OUTSTANDING PERSONNEL

During a recent college-wide election, college personnel elected the most outstanding administrator, faculty, and support staff person. Academic Dean Arthur Howington was named the Outstanding Administrator for the college. Muriel Campbell was named the Outstanding Support Staff person. Marilyn Terry was chosen the Outstanding Junior College Faculty member and John Speights was selected the Most Outstanding Technical Faculty member.

All four will compete statewide with other personnel from other Alabama community colleges. The winners will be announced during the Chancellor's Awards ceremony scheduled during the ACA Conference in Birmingham in November.

BLACK NAMED TO CHAMBER BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Shelton instructor LYDA BLACK was recently elected to the Board of Directors for the West Alabama Chamber of Commerce. Black serves as division chair for the Communications Technology Division of the college.

TURNER RECEIVES READING ASSOCIATION AWARD

Fran Turner, reading instructor for Shelton State, was recently recognized as the outstanding College Reading teacher for the State for 1995. This award recognizes professional competency, dedication to excellence in teaching, and a willingness to inspire students and fellow professional to achieve greatness. Turner was honored by the post-Secondary Reading Council during the 27th annual fall conference that was held recently in Birmingham.

Turner teaches both college reading classes and developmental reading classes. In addition, she helps administer Shelton's summer reading enrichment program for youth.

ORDER CHRISTMAS ORNAMENTS NOW

Would you like a special keepsake Christmas ornament? The Shelton State Foundation in cooperation with the Shelton State library will have a limited number of Shelton State ornaments for sell this Christmas. This will be the first in a series of Christmas ornaments sponsored by the Foundation that will be sold each year. Each ornament will cost $10.50, and all profits will to help fund the Shelton State library on the new campus. To place an order for an ornament, call the Foundation office, 391-2298.

SPANISH COOKBOOKS FOR SALE

The Spanish Club has the ideal solution to all your gift needs. For only $12, you can purchase a beautiful cookbook with 800 recipes contributed by the Shelton State family and their friends. All proceeds go to the Mabel Harries Endowed Spanish Scholarship Fund. Copies of the cookbook can be purchased from any student enrolled in one of Shelton's Spanish classes, or from Marilyn Terry, Jeannine Collins on the Skyland Campus, Louise Lewis or Nancy Hughes on the Fredd Campus, or Judy Holland on the 15th Street Campus.

FROM THE ALABAMA ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE CONTROL BOARD

LEGISLATIVE ALERT "You Booze, You Lose" Becomes Law!

During the 1995 legislative session, a bill, we hope is of interest to you and your student body, was passed and has become Alabama Act #95-766. This amendment to the Alabamam alcoholic beverage licensing code states that, "It shall be unlawful ... to attempt to purchase, to purchase, consume, possess, or to transport any alcoholic beverages within the state ..." and, "It shall be unlawful ... for a person under the age of 21 years to knowingly use or attempt to use a false, forged, deceptive, or otherwise nongenuine driver's license to obtain or attempt to obtain alcoholic beverages within this state." Any violation of this law is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $50.00 nor more than $500.00. In addition, the court or judge trying the case may add up to three months of imprisonment in the county jail or hard labor for the county.

UPON CONVICTION, THE OFFENDER'S DRIVER'S LICENSE WILL BE SURRENDERED TO THE JUDGE FOR A PERIOD OF THREE TO SIX MONTHS. The Alabama Department of Public Safety will be notified so that the suspension of the license can be enforced. This includes convictions in juvenile court or under the Youthful Offender Act.
